Discover Your Type

The Enneagram Type Indicator Sampler Results (RHETI Version 2.0)

Questionnaire Date: 3/5/2007 4:42:59 PM

The following numerical scores are calculated from your answers to the Sampler questionnaire. The highest score in any type is 8. You may want to print this page for reference before leaving the page, as you cannot return to the results (except with the "Back" button) without retaking the test.

Type 1	Type 2	Type 3	Type 4	Type 5	Type 6	Type 7	Type 8	Type 9
4	1	5	3	5	5	5	6	2

These same results reported in a histogram.

Click the Type Name link above for a profile of each Type. Brief descriptions are provided below.

You may print this graph out, but you MUST DO IT AT THIS TIME. You cannot go back once you have left the test results page!

Notes on the Results

Based entirely on highest score, you appear to have Type 8 personality characteristics.

You answered 36 questions out of 36. This is what your type appears to be given the number of questions answered. For best results, you should answer all questions that apply. Use your browser's Back button to continue with the questionnaire if you have not done so.

Brief Type Descriptions

Detailed 2,800+ word reports for all types (with new material on relationships, the Instincts, personal growth, and more) are provided with the full Riso-Hudson Enneagram Type Indicator, and in our books. See a free, complete expanded type description of Type Eight ("The Challenger") as a sample.

Type One

The Reformer

The principled, idealistic type. Ones are conscientious and ethical, with a strong sense of right and wrong. They are teachers, crusaders, and advocates for change: always striving to improve things, but afraid of making a mistake. Well-organized, orderly, and fastidious, they try to maintain high standards, but can slip into being critical and perfectionistic. They typically have problems with resentment and impatience. At their Best: wise, discerning, realistic, and noble. Can be morally heroic.

Type Two

The Helper

The caring, interpersonal type. Twos are empathetic, sincere, and warm-hearted. They are friendly, generous, and self-sacrificing, but can also be sentimental, flattering, and people-pleasing. They are well-meaning and driven to be close to others, but can slip into doing things for others in order to be needed. They typically have problems with possessiveness and with acknowledging their own needs. At their Best: unselfish and altruistic, they have unconditional love for others.

Type Three

The Achiever

The adaptable, success-oriented type. Threes are self-assured, attractive, and charming. Ambitious, competent, and energetic, they can also be status-conscious and highly driven for advancement. They are diplomatic and poised, but can also be overly concerned with their image and what others think of them. They typically have problems with workaholicism and competitiveness. At their Best: self-accepting, authentic, everything they seem to be—role models who inspire others.

Type Four

The Individualist

The introspective, romantic type. Fours are self-aware, sensitive, and reserved. They are emotionally honest, creative, and personal, but can also be moody and self-conscious. Withholding themselves from others due to feeling vulnerable and defective, they can also feel disdainful and exempt from ordinary ways of living. They typically have problems with melancholy, self-indulgence, and self-pity. At their Best: inspired and highly creative, they are able to renew themselves and transform their experiences.

Type Five

The Investigator

The perceptive, cerebral type. Fives are alert, insightful, and curious. They are able to concentrate and focus on developing complex ideas and skills. Independent, innovative, and inventive, they can also become preoccupied with their thoughts and imaginary constructs. They become detached, yet high-strung and intense. They typically have problems with eccentricity, nihilism, and isolation. At their Best: visionary pioneers, often ahead of their time, and able to see the world in an entirely new way.

Type Six

The Loyalist

The committed, security-oriented type. Sixes are reliable, hard-working, responsible, and trustworthy. Excellent "troubleshooters," they foresee problems and foster cooperation, but can also become defensive, evasive, and anxious—running on stress while complaining about it. They can be cautious and indecisive, but also reactive, defiant and rebellious. They typically have problems with self-doubt and suspicion. At their Best: internally stable and self-reliant, courageously championing themselves and others.

Type Seven

The Enthusiast

The busy, productive type. Sevens are extroverted, optimistic, versatile, and spontaneous. Playful, high-spirited, and practical, they can also misapply their many talents, becoming over-extended, scattered, and undisciplined. They constantly seek new and exciting experiences, but can become distracted and exhausted by staying on the go. They typically have problems with impatience and impulsiveness. At their Best: they focus their talents on worthwhile goals, becoming appreciative, joyous, and satisfied.

Type Eight

The Challenger

The powerful, aggressive type. Eights are self-confident, strong, and assertive. Protective, resourceful, straight-talking, and decisive, but can also be ego-centric and domineering. Eights feel they must control their environment, especially people, sometimes becoming confrontational and intimidating. Eights typically have problems with their tempers and with allowing themselves to be vulnerable. At their Best: self-mastering, they use their strength to improve others' lives, becoming heroic, magnanimous, and inspiring.

Type Nine

The Peacemaker

The easy-going, self-effacing type. Nines are accepting, trusting, and stable. They are usually creative, optimistic, and supportive, but can also be too willing to go along with others to keep the peace. They want everything to go smoothly and be without conflict, but they can also tend to be complacent, simplifying problems and minimizing anything upsetting. They typically have problems with inertia and stubbornness. At their Best: indomitable and all-embracing, they are able to bring people together and heal conflicts.

What Next?

Now that you have a basic idea of the Enneagram personality typing system, and an idea of what your Enneagram type may be, we recommend that you go on to take the full Riso-Hudson Enneagram Type Indicator (RHETI). This scientifically validated test is much more accurate in determining your Enneagram type than the short test you have just taken, and it also provides you with a complete description of your Enneagram type, as well as complete descriptions of the other types. You can see how much more extensive these complete descriptions are by comparing this sample description to the brief type descriptions provided with our free Enneagram test.

If you feel confident that you know what your Enneagram type is, we recommend that you explore the Instinctual Variants of the Enneagram types. Our Instinctual Variants Questionnaire (IVQ) is the world's first and most complete online test for this aspect of the Enneagram personality system. The Instinctual Variants explain a great deal of the differences within each Enneagram type and provide important insights into relationship compatibility.
